Index to Volume 9, 1973

BUSINESS HISTORY

The multifaceted mind of the first Henry Ford (Part I)
Henry Baker, Sr.
No. 2, March-April, pp. 1-7

The multifaceted mind of the first Henry Ford (Part II)
No. 3, May-June, pp. 1-6

COMMUTING

Commuters and the energy crisis
Rafael J. Betancourt
No. 6, November-December, pp. 34-35

COMPUTER SYSTEMS

Decision-oriented computer mapping systems (Part I)
Robert R. Bell and John B. Wallace, Jr.
No. 5, September-October, pp. 6-17

Decision-oriented computer mapping systems (Part II)
No. 6, November-December, pp. 22-30

CONSERVATION

Newspaper recycling: tax and other barriers inhibit its wider use
David B. Hatcher
No. 2, March-April, pp. 22-31

CONSUMERISM

Impact of consumerism—a response needed in product planning
Ronald D. Michman
No. 3, May-June, pp. 7-11

An analysis of unit pricing
Gary P. McFadden
No. 4, July-August, pp. 22-23

ECONOMICS

Florida economy: fourth quarter, 1972
Elmo L. Jackson
No. 2, March-April, pp. 32-33

Florida economy: first quarter, 1973
No. 3, May-June, pp. 30-31

Florida economy: second quarter, 1973
No. 4, July-August, pp. 26-28

Florida economy: third quarter, 1973
No. 6, November-December, pp. 32-33

The economics of the Olympic Games
James Cicarelli and David J. Kowarsky
No. 5, September-October, pp. 1-5

EDUCATION

The end of student growth? Economic and political implications of declining college enrollments
David T. Geithman and Clifford E. Landers
No. 4, July-August, pp. 1-17

EMPLOYMENT

Changes in the composition of the labor force of Florida during the 1960s
Norman Keig
No. 3, May-June, pp. 22-29

How the government measures employment
No. 4, July-August, pp. 24-25

Is the evidence on discrimination as clear as black and white?
John F. Morall III
No. 4, July-August, pp. 18-21

Job mobility among factory workers in the United States
Paul A. Armknecht and John F. Early
No. 5, September-October, pp. 34-35

FORESTRY

Potentially available timber volumes on farm and miscellaneous private timberlands in Florida
J. Dewel Lawrence and Frank O. Lege
No. 3, May-June, pp. 12-21

FORECASTING and PLANNING

Details of two counties or how to use the census for evaluating social and economic trends
Ralph B. Thompson
No. 1, January-February, pp. 15-21

MANAGEMENT

Inventory and the business cycle—a management viewpoint
Leslie W. Rue and Thomas B. Clark
No. 1, January-February, pp. 22-24

Pressure-point management—automotive style
Edwin B. Bond
No. 1, January-February, pp. 25-26

The brightest and best: managerial and leadership rankings of six U.S. presidents (Part I)
Henry Baker, Sr.
No. 6, November-December, pp. 1-8

OIL

Middle Eastern oil and U.S. policy
Marshall E. Parry
No. 6, November-December, p. 31

PERSONAL INCOME

Florida closes gap on national personal income average
Madelyn L. Kafoglis
No. 5, September-October, pp. 18-33

POVERTY

The pattern of poverty in Florida
Norman Keig
No. 6, November-December, pp. 9-21

PUBLIC UTILITIES

Capital intensity: a problem for utilities during inflation
Milford S. Tysseland
No. 1, January-February, pp. 1-7

Utilities: depreciation and financing during inflation
Milford S. Tysseland
No. 2, March-April, pp. 8-17

TRANSPORTATION

Amtrak and the passenger train: resurrection or euthanasia?
J. Kirker Stephens
No. 1, January-February, pp. 8-14

TOURISM

Florida tourism and the business cycle
Sam G. Berry
No. 1, January-February, pp. 27-29

SOCIOLOGY

After the riot—a broadened view of social responsiblity in business
Lynn Townsend
No. 2. March-April, pp. 18-21

STATISTICS

The economic and social answer book: the Florida Statistical Abstract for 1973
Ralph B. Thompson
No. 5, September-October, pp. 36-37